

CASE STUDY

Perfect match for Optus Stadium

Eliza was recommended to the Hospitality Disability Network by Workpower after successfully completing a Job Ready program, equipping her with the necessary skills to apply for positions in the Hospitality and Tourism sector.

She expressed her long-standing passion for Hospitality, citing her enjoyment of interacting and engaging with new people. With the support of HDNWA and Workpower, Eliza secured a position at Optus Stadium, where she works in both the kitchen and retail areas.

She has had the opportunity to work at various events, including P!nk and Coldplay, and is appreciative of the chance to be part of mainstream employment.

Eliza's journey is a testament to the power of determination and the importance of a supportive network. Her enthusiasm for the hospitality industry shines through in every task she undertakes, whether she's preparing delicious meals in the kitchen or assisting customers in the retail spaces.

Her colleagues and supervisors at Optus Stadium continually praise her for her dedication, positive attitude, and willingness to learn. Each event she works at not only builds her confidence but also expands her skill set, making her an invaluable asset to the team.

The support from Workpower and HDNWA has been instrumental in Eliza's success, providing her with ongoing training and mentorship. This collaborative effort has not only ensured that Eliza thrives in her role but also serves as an inspiring example of what can be achieved when organizations work together to foster inclusivity in the workplace.

Looking ahead, Eliza hopes to continue advancing her career within the hospitality industry. With her passion, dedication, and the unwavering support of her network, there's no doubt that Eliza will achieve all this and more.

Pictured: Eliza