

Career Profile

Tour Guide

Overview

Tour guides lead groups through attractions, providing information and ensuring an enjoyable experience. They may work in cities, nature parks, or historic sites.

Requirments

Good communication skills, confidence in public speaking, and knowledge of the area are essential. Physical fitness may be required for walking tours.

Training

A Certificate III or IV in Tourism is useful. Some roles require first aid training.

Opporunities

Tour guides work in museums, national parks, and travel companies, with potential to specialise in adventure or cultural tourism.

WATCH A SNAPSHOT
VIDEO

SCAN
ME!