

Career Profile

Waitperson

Overview

Waitpersons serve food and drinks, take orders, and ensure guests have a great dining experience. Work alongside front of house staff and back of house staff.

Requirments

Good communication, teamwork, and the ability to work quickly under pressure are important. Flexibility in hours and availability such as weekends and public holidays.

Training

No formal qualifications are needed, but an RSA certificate may be required for serving alcohol along with Food Hygiene certificate.

Opporunities

Waitpersons can progress into restaurant management, event catering, or hospitality leadership roles.

