HOSPITALITY DISABILITY NETWORK

EXCITING NEWS

We are excited to share a brand new way you can support Hospitality Disability Network WA and be part of creating real change across our industry.

We are now officially accepting donations through Containers for Change.

If your workplace already has a Containers for Change donation program in place, we'd love you to consider nominating HDNWA as a recipient charity

That 10 cent refund might seem small, but when our community gets behind it, it quickly adds up to real impact.

By choosing to donate your refunds to HDNWA, you are helping us create more inclusive employment opportunities for people living with disability in hospitality and tourism.

Getting involved is simple.

 COLLECT YOUR CANS AND BOTTLES AT HOME OR IN YOUR WORKPLACE

 RETURN THEM AT YOUR LOCAL CONTAINERS FOR CHANGE POINT

 USE OUR MEMBER NUMBER C11739971 TO DONATE YOUR REFUND

This is a practical, everyday action that you, your team, or your customers can take to support inclusion in a tangible way.

Every container. Every dollar.
Every contribution helps open doors.

Thank you for being part of a more inclusive hospitality and tourism industry

CELEBRATING EXCELLENCE

The Australian Hotels Association recently hosted the AHA & Perth Airport Accommodation Awards 2026, and it was great to see so many HDNWA members recognised for their outstanding work across the industry.

We are proud to celebrate the achievements of our network, with a special mention to our board members:

All Abilities Hotel Award: Novotel Perth Murray Street
Human Resources Manager Award: Jai McNaughton, Novotel Perth Murray Street
Senior Executive Manager Award: John Parker, Marriott International

We also celebrate the success of our member hotels who took home awards on the night:

- The Westin Perth
- The Ritz-Carlton Perth
- Courtyard by Marriott Perth Murdoch
- Aloft Perth
- Pan Pacific Perth
- Novotel Perth Murray Street
- Esplanade Hotel Fremantle by Rydges

Seeing our members recognised at this level reflects the strength of the industry and the commitment to excellence across hospitality in Western Australia

HDNWA NEWEST CAMPAIGN

A PLACE AT THE TABLE FOR ALL

HDNWA is proud to launch our new campaign, A Place at the Table for ALL.

This campaign focuses on the real employment barriers faced by people living with disability across Western Australia, particularly within hospitality and tourism.

It aims to raise awareness, challenge misconceptions, and provide practical insights that support more inclusive hiring practices.

You will see a mix of real stories, industry perspectives, and useful resources that highlight both the challenges and the opportunities.

The goal is clear. Create pathways for equitable employment and support businesses to build more inclusive workplaces.

We invite you to be part of this movement. Pull up another chair, start the conversation, and take action.

Because when there is a place at the table for all, everyone benefits.
