

Public Area Attendant

Overview

A public area attendant keeps shared spaces such as lobbies, hallways, bathrooms, and guest areas clean, tidy, and welcoming in hotels and other hospitality venues.

Requirements

- Attention to detail
- Good communication
- Ability to work independently
- Ability to follow instructions
- Good hygiene practices
- Ability to stand and walk for long periods

Training

No formal qualification is usually required to start. Employers generally provide training in cleaning, hygiene and workplace safety. A Certificate III in Hospitality can provide broader hospitality skills.

Career Progression

